Long-term supplier's declaration for products of non-preferential origin

The undersigned, supplier of the goods, may issue this Long-term Supplier's declaration of non-preferential origin (LSO) on the request of the buyer, who uses it as evidence when he applies for a certificate of origin for the exportation of the goods.

- The LSO should only be used within the European Union.
- This declaration is to be placed on the supplier's letter paper.

Notes for completion of the declaration:

- (1) Description of the goods.
- (2) Trade description as used on invoices, e.g. model No.
- (3) Name of buyer.
- (4) State just the applicable option. If products are delivered of EU origin together with products of non-EU origin, various supplier's declarations should be issued.
- (5) State the country of origin (member state of the European Union); if various goods are of different origins, these origins shall be mentioned to each item.
- (6) According to Regulation (EU) 952/2013 art. 61 sub 3. (PB L 269 of 10.10.2013).
- (7) State the country of origin; if various goods are of different origins, these origins shall be mentioned to each item.
- (8) Give the dates. The period of validity shall not exceed 24 months.

IMPORTANT !

This declaration is not valid for goods having preferential origin status and which qualify for movement certificates EUR.1, EUR-MED or invoice declarations. For such use the "declaration for products having preferential origin status" according to Regulation (EC) 2015/2447, art. 62, annex 22-16 (PB L 343 of 29.12.2015) is applicable.
